

The Connecticut Police Chiefs Law Enforcement Memorial

Paul J. Beaupre
Lieutenant
Bloomfield
Died: 12/19/1967

On December 19, 1967, Lt. Beaupre was out Christmas shopping for his family and was held up by three men as he was entering his vehicle. Upon identifying himself as a Police Lieutenant he was taken to the Town of Enfield where he was executed. Upon apprehension, the perpetrators indicated that he was one of the number of law enforcement officers on a list that were targeted for execution by one of the subversive groups in existence at that time.
