

The Connecticut Police Chiefs Law Enforcement Memorial

Joseph Pych
Patrolman
Enfield
Died: 12/25/1954

Patrolman Joseph Pych, age 36, a regular officer of the Enfield Police Department, was killed in the line of duty on December 25, 1954. While on cruiser patrol duty, and in pursuit of a speeding motor vehicle, another motorist obstructed the officers path of travel. To avoid a collision, the officer veered his patrol car off the highway. In doing this, the cruiser rolled over and struck a tree, whereby Patrolman Pych was crushed to death. Patrolman Pych was appointed to the force June 2, 1953. He left his wife and two children.