The Connecticut Police Chiefs Law Enforcement Memorial

Andrew L. Schlechtweig
Officer
Stamford
Died: 05/26/1938

Officer Andrew Schlechtweg was on duty riding his department motorcycle on East Main Street when a car struck him. After sliding 46 feet across the Post Road, he was taken by "police ambulance" to Stamford Hospital. He died, without ever regaining consciousness, due to a compound fracture of the skull